Election Recap with Rick Albin

Rick Albin is the political reporter for 24 Hour News 8. He has been associated with WOOD TV8 since the mid 90's. Rick has been involved in broadcasting since he began working at his hometown radio station while still in high school. He has covered politics on the radio and on television in five states, and has interviewed every U.S. president since President Gerald R. Ford. Rick is also the host of "To The Point," a show that examines issues and elections that impact the state and the nation.

Program Presentation

Tim Selgo

"Activities for Baby Boomers to Achieve a Balance of the Mind and Body"

Tim Selgo spent 35 years in college athletics, 7 as a basketball coach at his alma mater, the University of Toledo, 8 as Associate Athletics Director at Toledo, and 20 as the Director of Athletics at Grand Valley State University from 1996 until his retirement as A.D. in July of 2016. A well-respected leader in college athletics, Selgo served on the NCAA DII Management Council for four years (2007-11), including serving as Chair of the Management Council in 2009.
